Raising the bar for building design in the Ortigas CBD

The Currency is one of the finest places to live - right in the heart of one of the country's most frenetic business districts, the Ortigas Business Center. The 32-storey glass and steel marvel is bordered by the city's key avenues: Julia Vargas, F. Ortigas Jr., and Garnet. It is a hub of residential units and business flats that blends enterprise with sanctuary. A ground level commercial plaza will house commercial shops and restaurants.

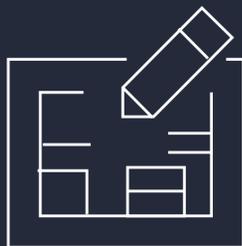

A lavish lobby welcomes the urbanite home or to work with separate lobbies for residents and office workers. Five levels of parking, 24/7 security, and intelligent building systems convey the planning and thoughtful designing that went into the creation of The Currency.
